Attached is a rough draft of how Pat and I envision the meetings moving forward.

There is the agenda, but then we should have attachments with key questions for discussion. These are currently place holders and some will remain questions, others will be replaced with options the workgroup has considered, but I wanted to get input from this group to ensure we were tracking in the right direction before too much time is spent on going down a wrong road.

Please let us know your general thoughts sooner rather than later. Thanks, kathy
